APPENDIX #7:

To: The Delegates of the 202nd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania

From: The Diocesan Christian Education Committee
For the Christian Education Resource Center Project

Re: A First Annual Report, July 1985

Our committee and its project traces its origins to the Christian Nurture section of the Diocese's Long Range Plan, which was adopted in 1980. This Plan called for the development of "a sound but flexible Christian Education Program, teaching the fundamentals of the Christian Faith." In 1983, Bishop Ogilby appointed an ad hoc committee to consider specific ways of reaching the goals of the long range plan. The ad hoc committee conducted a needs survey and recommended the appointment of a Diocesan Christian Education Committee and the establishment of a Diocesan Christian Education Resource Center.

The predominant needs uncovered by the survey were these: Congregations asked for a central location, in which they could find both material and people resources; where they could get help sorting out their ideas and objectives; and where they could inspect materials and have assistance in selecting and obtaining them. They asked for teacher training both in workshops and with consultants. They asked for evidence of Diocesan support for their parish efforts. They asked for Bible Study at all age levels. They asked about how to structure programs; how to increase enrollment.

Phoebe Griswold, St. Martins in the Field, was asked by Bishop Ogilby to draw up a proposal for a Diocesan Christian Education Resource Center in consultation with many Diocesan leaders both clergy and lay. During the summer of 1984, Mrs. Griswold was asked by the Bishop to assume the responsibilities as Director of the Project, and The Rev. Franklin D. Turner of the Diocesan Staff was asked to represent the Bishop in all matters for consideration.

The first step of the project was to name a representative committee from all areas of the diocese. Nominations were called for by the Bishop from all Rectors and Vicars in the Diocese, and early in 1985 a 30 member committee was appointed. The committee has its first meeting in March, convening in full session or in sub-groups at least every two weeks.

Responding to the generous offer by the Church of the Saviour to provide office space for the project, the first steps toward a Diocesan center for Christian Education are being taken. At present the space is small, but it will serve well the beginning, where people, experience, and materials may connect in the hope of gaining faithful service to the one we call Lord.

Those who participated in the process for calling the volunteer membership of the committee together cannot help but be impressed with both their competence and the depth of their commitment. They have produced drafts of by-laws; theological and mission statements; and a survey for and about Christian Education programs in the parishes, as well as coming up with many suggestions and practical ideas based on their working knowledge of Christian Education on the front lines.

By the time of the 1985 Diocesan Convention, the Diocesan Christian Education Committee will have sponsored a teacher training workshop with The Rev. Locke E. Bowman, Professor and Director of the Center for the Ministry of Teaching at the Virginia Theological Seminary.

With the election of The Rev. Frank Griswold, Rector of St. Martin in the Field, to Bishop Coadjutor of Chicago, Mrs. Griswold's work with the Committee and the Center was completed in June. Helen White, who had been appointed assistant to the project director, was asked to assume her responsibilities.

Christian Education is an old and very well-used term. As we approach the last decade of this century, how will we as educators be open to the Word that is among us so that our understanding and our work will be enlivened by that Word? How do we connect to the total mission and ministry of the Diocese as we are all led to make real the vision of what we can yet become as the people of God? One concept seems to be in hand already and that is that Christian Education is a life long process; a process that continues from cradle to grave.

Our responsibility for Christian nurture then is no less than to all and with all. It is to infants, children, youth, and adult; taking firm note that the latter life-phase is the longest one of all. And, with Thanksgiving to Almighty God, it is growing longer and healthier.

Our hearts are full and grateful; and our prayers are for God's wisdom, truth and abiding grace shown and known through the life, love and teaching of Jesus, the Word whom God has spoken.

Helen White, for the Committee
The Rev. Franklin D. Turner, Bishop's Staff

APPENDIX #8: EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

It is a meaningful and joyful experience, working with women of the Diocese who feel the need to continually project their love and concern for others, realizing what a wonderful work this is and what wonderful people we serve.

Annual reports by Vice Presidents of departments of Mission, Diocesan Ministries, World Services, Promotion, United Thank Offering, and chairpersons of Lay Ministries, Lea Hill Scholarship and Food Crisis Fund Committees indicate a shared commitment of time, talents and resources to facilitate mutually responsive programs. They join together in mission and ministry, seeking to improve life for others, loving our Lord and working to make Him known. ECW board meetings are open to all. Speakers this year, included representatives of Elizabeth Price Martin League #2, Daughters of the King, Girls' Friendly Society, Lea Hill Scholarship recipient, Episcopal Community Service, and Co-ordinator of Diocesan Refugee Settlement.

The most constant thing in the world is "change". We regard this as a challenge to plan programs more responsive to women today, who are working, with the family structure in need of all kinds of support. This was the focus of Program Evaluation and Planning Day at Cathedral Village. Enthusiasm was high with a lively discussion on the frustration many Dioceses share, getting full participation from the Parishes, and the problem of communication. The focus of the board will be on developing a network with Deaneries through their representatives, to extend ECW Diocesan programs and plan for board membership to visit ECW groups, sharing and supporting them within the framework of our Mission Statement:

> To provide opportunities for Leadership and Spiritual Growth for the women of the Diocese.
> Through a centralized presence and program, the Diocesan ECW will coordinate, communicate and promote the various ministries being carried out by the women of the Diocese.
> Further, through its own Programs, the Diocesan ECW will bring about fuller participation of all women in the Episcopal Church.

Myriad events including, A Day of Recollection for the ECW Board at St. Margaret's House, conducted by the Rev. Sister Adele Marie, where we were spiritually enriched and strengthened.

Our attractive exhibit during the 201 Diocesan Convention prepared by the Department of World Services, highlighted the areas of ministry to the needy. I hope you share my excitement over the completion of the first edition of "Women of the Past" of the Diocese of Pennsylvania for the Bicentennial with thirty-one histories of women whose activities were important in extending the mission of the Church. Copies were mailed to each ECW president, or Clergy of our Churches, requesting it be made available to all Parishioners. Additional ones have been written this year. They will be combined in an expandable binder, so that each year more churches will recognize the value of preserving the contribution of women, adding to the history. Is your Parish included?

Continuing support of the education of women is affirmed by designating February as Lea Hill Scholarship Month and encouraging Parishes to increase their contributions to this Fund. It was successful this year.

Women's History Week Celebration at the Bourse was highlighted by our nominee, Mrs. Christine Washington, receiving the Mayor's Community Service Award for her work as founder and President of the Advocate Community Development Corporation (ACDC), renovating houses in North Philadelphia making them available for low income families. She is actively involved in several volunteer projects. With a busy schedule she finds time for music, art and writing. Our exhibit at the Bourse was supervised by the Department of Promotion and World Services.

Many of our women participate in community and civic groups, giving them a framework for advocacy beyond the Parishes. Our variety of ministries is one of our strengths. We have a presence in Suwer's meetings, Membership on the Bishop's Staff, the Finance and Property Committee, Commission on Racism, board of the Christmas Fund, Diocesan Council, executive committee of Schuylkill Deanery. The closing service of our Bicentennial at Civic Center was an exciting and humbling experience. Supper in the Oak Room, followed by the procession into Convention Hall, reading the Psalm were an extension of ministry.

We were asked to have women of our Diocese place their names in nomination for these National offices; Executive Council, the Church Pension Fund, General Board of Examining Chaplains and Trustee of General Theological Seminary, to be voted on in Anaheim during General Convention. Several women sent in the nomination forms. One of these women has been selected for the slate of Trustee, General Theological Seminary , and another for Board of the Church Pension Fund.

We attended the Annual Meeting of the executive board of Province III in Flanders Hotel, Ocean City, following a weekend conference on Power to Relate, Power to Create, reframing ideas and identifying the things that keep us from sharng Christ's Ministry.

A bus trip in the Spring to New York City was planned. A tour of Trinity Church Wall Street was a privilege and a joy as we celebrated noon day prayers and visited many of the historical exhibitions areas. Following lunch, we were welcomed at the New York Stock Exchange.

Our expectations are high, looking forward to the Triennial of ECW in Anaheim, California, September 7-14 and the opportunity to meet women from other Provinces, gaining knowledge, insights and skills. Our delegates are: Bette Potts, Karey Smith, Dorothy Villante, Lillian Milan (alternate). We will share Triennial with you in your ECW Fall meeting.

Blessings and Peace,
Karey B. Smith

UNITED THANK OFFERING

Bette Potts May, 1985

The United Thank Offering continues to increase its parish participation. The total diocesan offerings (Fall, 1983 and Spring, 1984) was $91,227.75. These offerings were included in the grants made in 1984 for use in 1985. In our diocese, La Communidad Hispana Education for Living project in Chester County received a grant of $25,000. The Episcopal Community Services Victim of Crime Assistance program received $8,500. The Fall 1984 Ingathering was $45,159.30 and will be included in the annual total with the present Spring Ingathering. These offerings will be included in the grants announced in September for use in 1986. It will be my privilege to represent our diocese in the selection of these grants at the Triennial in Anaheim.

A service of Evening Prayer and the Presentation of the Fall UTO Ingathering was held at St. Luke's Germantown on November 18, 1984 at 3 P.M. The speaker was The Rt. Rev. Emerson A. Bonoan, St. Andrew's Seminary, The Philippines. The Ingathering was followed by Tea in the Parish Hall. The Holy Eucharist and Presentation of the Spring, 1985 Ingathering will be at Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr on Wednesday, May 8, 1985 at 1 P.M. Our speaker will be Bishop Ogilby whose enthusiastic support of the UTO is deeply appreciated by all. The ECW Annual Meeting and Tea will follow the service.

The UTO Committee continues to be in contact with projects receiving UTO grants in the past. We have visited the Wholistic Health Center, Philadelphia (1982 Grant) and will soon visit La Communidad Hispana Education for Living, Chester County (1984 Grant). The UTO program has been presented at the following churches: Incarnation, Holy Sacrament, Drexel Hill; Calvary, Rockdale; St. Mary's, Chester; Holy Trinity, Lansdale; St. Dunstan's, Blue Bell; All Saints, Torresdale; and St. Paul's, Doylestown. There have been four mailings to all UTO custodians distributing all materials and information received from the national UTO office.

In expanding the role of Episcopal Churchwomen in the United Thank Offering, our local diocesan committee now screens the grant requests received locally to be sure they meet the criteria of the UTO. In the subsequent review of these grants for recommendation, three UTO custodians were invited to review and recommend their choices. These choices were included in the reviewing process which includes the recommendations of the Bishop's staff, three Deans, two representatives of social agencies, the UTO diocesan custodian and assistant. We thank Mrs. Norlee Fox, Trinity, Ambler; Mrs. Virginia Class, Trinity, Buckingham; and Miss Jane Burton, St. Mark's, Philadelphia for their assistance in this process.

Many thanks to all UTO Custodians and ECW Presidents. The success of the United Thank Offering is sustained throughout our diocese due to your interest and effort. A special thanks also to Celian Putnam, assistant custodian, and our UTO committee for their support, enthusiasm and friendship.

FOOD CRISIS FUND REPORT

Nancy S. Ritter May, 1985

"We have been getting more senior citizens, some caring for grandchildren."
from West Philadelphia

". . . increase in young adults out of work."
from West Philadelphia

"We are avilable for food orders 24 hours a day, 7 days a week,... and keep busy."
from Delaware County

"We have more people that bring their children."
from South Philadelphia

". . . increase in clients between 35-40 years of age."

"Many more single 'able bodied' people who are only eligible for public assistance for three-month period."
from Bucks County

"More of working poor and people who have been laid off."
from Warminster

". . .Younger males and female are requesting food assistance."
from Chester

These comments are from the recent response to our annual spring questionnaire to cupboards and kitchens aided by the ECW Food Crisis Fund. All of the replies show the on-going need to attempt to meet the need of the hunger problem in our Diocese.

Requests for help have come from two additional sites, as well as a new Episcopal shelter for the homeless. No Federal money was made available this winter for the hungry in Philadelphia this winter, so we are thankful for the faithful individuals and parishes who give regularly to the ECW Fund.

We give special thanks to the Board of Rabbis of Greater Philadelphia who generously donated one thousand dollars for a center-city cupboard.

The food cupboards and kitchens, independently operated, stretch through the five-county area. About half are Episcopalian and half community based. All of them give to the needy, regardless of affiliation. Those receiving our assistance this year are:

Church of the Advocate - food cupboard
Church of the Advocate - soup kitchen
Calvary Episcopal Church, Rockdale
Christ Church and St. Ambrose, Philadelphia
Colonial Neighborhood Council, Conshohocken
Coordinating Council for Health & Welfare, Warminster
Fish Interfaith, Norristown

DEPARTMENT OF WORLD SERVICES

Dorothy G. Villante — May, 1985

"I was naked, and ye clothed me..... Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least, ye have done it unto me." St. Matthew XXV.31.

World Services began its year of activities with 12 Mini Emporiums and guest speakers on Wednesday, September 26, 1984 at the following hosting parishes:

Brandywine	-	St. Peters Church in the Great Valley (Seamen's Church Institute)
Bucks	-	Church of the Redeemer, Andalusia (Adult & Family Services Division)
Connestoga	-	St. Faith's Church, Havertown (Inglis Home)
Delaware	-	Christ Church, Media (Aid for Friends)
Fairmount	-	Grace Church & The Incarnation (Center for Human Services)
Merion	-	St. David's Church, Radnor (Voyage House)
Montgomery	-	All Hallows Church, Wyncote (Hispanic Mission of St. Paul's, Chester)
Pennypack	-	Trinity Church, Oxford (Philadelphia Committee for the Homeless)
Schuylkill	-	Church of The Saviour (O.B. Teen Clinic, Hospital of the University of Pa.)
Southwark	-	Gloria Dei (Old Swedes) Church (Kearsley Home)
Valley Forge	-	Church of the Epiphany, Royersford (The American Red Cross)
Wissahickon	-	Calvary Church, Germantown (Episcopal Hospital)

Free sewing materials were distributed among the parishes attending Emporium.

Parishes throughout all the deaneries chose their own World Service Sunday (fall clothing drive) from any Sunday in October which benefitted children and adults from child size-7 on up. Parishes also chose their own Layette Sunday (Spring clothing drive) from any Sunday in March which benefitted newborn, baby and children up to child size-6. Immediately following each clothing drive these parishes made their own distribution looking to their neighborhood priorities first. This formality enabled World Services to donate more than 2500 articles of clothing for neighborhood distribution throughout the Diocese. Also from your donations we were able to forward a check for $350 to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

Our Blanket Sunday Appeal on February 10, 1985 generated $3,188.00 which enabled Church World Service/CROP to purchase 637 blankets for disaster victims worldwide. Also our Blanket Sunday Appeal on May 6, 1984 generated $2,207.20 for CWS/CROP.

It has been very gratifying and rewarding in presenting World Services to the ECW Groups at Church of Our Saviour, Jenkintown on February 12th, at Christ Church & St. Michael's on March 12th and to a breakfast group at historic St. Thomas on Sunday morning, April 21st.

I especially want to thank the following Mini/Reps for faithfully directing their world service energies in reaching out to all the parishes in their deaneries. I couldn't have done it without them. My sincere grateful thanks to:

Brandywine - Myrtle Lindley
Bucks - Doris Freas
Conestoga - Mabel Sanders
Delaware - Katharine Michalski
Fairmount - Sharon Kelly
Merion - Janet Haefeli
Montgomery - Jane Beadle
Pennypack - Ruth Miller
Schuylkill - Mary Frances Barber
Southwark - Aretha Archer
Valley Forge - Cecelia Richardson
Wissahickon - Elizabeth Bedinger

LEA HILL SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE

Mrs. N. Wesley Norton — May, 1985

This academic year, the Lea Hill Scholarship Fund aided six women in their pursuit of higher education. They received a total of $500 each for the year. They have all indicated that they are doing well in their studies.

For the first time, the Lea Hill Scholarship Committee undertook a campaign to raise extra monies for the Fund by declaring February, 1985, as Lea Hill Scholarship Month.

With the assistance of the Diocesan Board, ECW, a plan was developed. The target of the campaign was $100 from each parish.

An article about Lea Hill Scholarship Month appeared in the December, 1984, issue of THE EPISCOPALIAN. Letters of request/information, (including brochures), were sent to: parish ECW's and key women; all twelve deaneries; other interested groups; and designated individuals throughout the Diocese. Current scholarship recipients were asked to urge their parishes to help.

We feel that this first effort will be very encouraging; and if we pursue the idea, it may have a cumulative effect on the people of the Diocese. In that event, the Lea Hill Scholarship Fund might begin to enjoy more substantial support.

LAY MINISTRY COMMITTEE

Amy S. Lancaster — May, 1985

The Lay Ministry Committee has devoted its efforts in 1984-1985 to the topic, "Children Bearing Children" for the second consecutive year. Two projects filled our time and provided us with the framework for a third year.

First a simple survey was taken of the sixty-one school districts in Bucks, Chester, Delaware and Montgomery Counties. A copy of that report has been designated for each of the one hundred two parishes within that area. Thank you for making this possible: Lucetta Alderfer, Catherine Stradley and Aubine Teamer of Redeemer, Bryn Mawr; Jean Battin and Dorothy Rea, of St. John's Concord; Bernice Cumens of Holy Trinity, West Chester; Frances Dean and Nancy Ritter of All Saints, Norristown; Millicent Graf and Jeanette Van Nuffel of Good Shepherd, Hilltown; Rozanne Grigger of St. Philip's-in-the Field, Oreland; Constance Kline and Margaret Marcopol, of St. James-the-Greater, Bristol; Wanda Pierce of Emmanuel, Quakertown; Joan Sturtevant of St. Paul's, Doylestown, and Arinetta Wiley of Christ Church, Ridley Park.

A day conference on "Children Bearing Children" took place April 19, 1985. Lucille Howard, Program Analyst with the Youth Services Coordinating Office, City of Philadelphia and currently responsible for the Coordinating Council for Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention established by Mayor Goode in 1985 began the day with "What Facts Do We Know?" George Feuer, Ph.D. from Family Service of Philadelphia discussed "Boys and Girls Get Different Signals". Frances Miller directs the social work in the delivery of service at the OB/Gyn Services of the hospital of the University of Pennsylvania and she spoke of working with more and more younger and younger parents. Florence Magrini spoke of the work with teen parents done through the Comprehensive Services to School Age Parents and Naomi Karin represented the Department of Public Welfare, Community Services Department and defined the extent and limitations of public assistance to teen parents .

Ada Harris of Calvary, Northern Liberties; Roberta Kenkelen of Good Shepherd, Germantown; Sister Mary Michael of St. Margaret's House; Lillian Milan of St. Luke's Germantown; Frances Clark, Elizabeth Forrester and Susie Rich of St. Thomas', Philadelphia, also, ECW Secretary, Doris Connor of St. John the Evangelist, Philadelphia and Karey Smith, our Diocesan ECW President, Calvary, N.L. helped with the planning and arrangements for a successful conference. To them and Josephine Wells of Calvary, N.L. who did the art work for the brochures, many many thanks for a year of accomplishment.

DEPARTMENT OF DIOCESAN MINISTRIES

Mrs. Mary Minter

May, 1985

The Department of Diocesan Ministries is concerned with promoting knowledge and support of agencies, programs, and ministries of the Diocese.

On April 11th, we had the opportunity to visit Episcopal Community Services at 225 South 3rd St., Philadelphia to learn about the services available to the home bound elderly. We were greeted by Rev. Gil Avery. Mr. Robert Wallis gave a very interesting and detailed account of the services ECS is able to arrange. It was a large and interested group that attended and participated in a lively discussion. Many questions about various facets of ECS services were answered.

Other ministries of concern to this department are:

Voyage House
All Soul's Church for the Deaf
Seaman's Institute
The Food Cupboards

WOMEN'S HISTORY COMMITTEE

Mrs. Elizabeth Higbee

May, 1985

Our contribution to the Episcopal Church's Bicentennial Year has developed into a project which we plan to do as a yearly history. Our second year has been very rewarding in that we now have many biographies from churches which were not represented before. Our aim is to have the history of at least one woman from every church in the Diocese.

We ask that you research women known in your parish as "Everyday Saints," women who have served without titles or even recognition such as rummage sale workers, prayer group members, needlewomen, etc. You may have had vestry members, lay readers, Altar Guild officers, Sunday School teachers, etc. Some of our churches have had women who served on the Diocesan level as Convention delegates, UTO chairmen, or even as missionaries. These are a few examples of the women whose histories we wish to record.

Last year's book and this year's will be printed together as a loose leaf publication; then pages will be added each year. In doing research, please use the following information:

- Years of birth and death
- Title or position with dates of service
- Name of church
- Type or print, double space, on 8½ x 11 paper, wide margin
- Include some humor if possible
- Include photograph or other supportive material

We appreciate the cooperation of all who have supported our undertaking and will look forward to many more of our fine Episcopal women being added to our book each year.

Faithfully submitted,

Elizabeth E. Higbee, Chairperson
Women's History Committee

DEPARTMENT OF PROMOTION

Mrs. Lillian M. Milan — May, 1985

Each year, we try to live up to the purpose of the Department of Promotion, which is to publicize Episcopal Churchwomen's Programs through a variety of promotional materials.

Parishes are urged to share their projects, activities and methods used to make them effective. Promotion must be an "open line" of communication between all groups of women.

This is accomplshed most effectively through the Episcopalian, which is mailed to many Diocesan families. The deadline for news in this publication is very important, note how it works: Articles are due the first of the month, prior to the publication month of the Episcopalian. For example, information should be in September 1 for an October event.

Written articles of your programs should be mailed to:

Philadelphia, PA 19103

This is the end of my term in office. I am happy to say your interest, help and guidance will always be remembered, with prayer. Every member of the committee was responsive. I recall with happy memories the support given this Department by our Department by our President, Karey Smith, Elizabeth Bedinger and Janette Pierce, News Editor of the Episcopalian, and my committee.

Gratefully yours,

Lillian M. Milan,
Vice President, Department of Promotion

THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

Mrs. Adele Ray — May, 1985

The Girl's Friendly Society in the Diocese of Pennsylvania is a vital organization offering all girls, regardless of race, creed or church preference, the opportunity to grow, discover, learn and be creative. They share in the life of the parish and bring girls from the community into Fellowship. There are 3 age groups; Juniors 6-10, Intermediates 11-13 and Seniors 14-21. Several sponsor groups and many individuals encourage and support our programs.

We celebrated the Birthday of our Diocese at our Annual Junior Day held in 1984 at Trinity Church, Oxford. Songs, dances and several original skits were presented saluting the Diocese. It was a beautiful day complete with a Birthday cake, balloons and banners. The grace often used by Bishop Ogilby was put to music and sung by the girls. A framed copy was given to Bishop Ogilby.

The Holiday House at Cape May was once more a bee hive of activity. Ninety girls participated in the youth weeks. Several church youth groups held retreats after the regular season. A GFS leadership training weekend was held in September. This proved to be very successful and will be repeated in 1985.

Over 100 members attended the beautiful World Day of Prayer service written by the Welsh GFS.

The branches continue to provide Holiday tray favors for 14 different hospitals and homes. The GFS is also responsible for the Gingerbread Booth at the Episcopal Hospital May Fete with the proceeds going to the Hospital through the Elizabeth Price Martin League. Seamen's Institute and ECS taxi coupons for the blind are another way we share.

The Annual Mission Day Service was held at St. Luke's, Germantown and was conducted by Sister Adele Marie and our chaplain, H. Raymond Baker. Sister Clair Marie delivered the sermon and following lunch showed us slides and told us the work of the Sisters in Haiti.

It was my pleasure to represent our Diocese at the 11th World Council held in Japan, August, 1984. The theme, Together in Christ - sharing Love and Peace was expressed in many ways during the week. We were honored to have the Primate of Japan, The Right Reverend Watanobe, with us for the entire conference. He shared with us his love, strength and understanding as we relived the bombings of Hiroshima and the horrors of war with pictures and talks by noted speakers. Together we grew in God's love and the knowledge that peace is the responsibility of each one of us.

Joining GFS members from 18 countries in Worship, Workshops, and just having fun was a memorable experience.

We appreciate the support given us by the Diocesan ECW and also the many parish ECW's that support the branches in their churches.

The door is always open and we invite you to visit one of our branches or participate in any of our special services and programs.

ELIZABETH PRICE MARTIN LEAGUE #2

Episcopal Hospital

Phyllis C. Lightcap May, 1985

The Elizabeth Price Martin League #2 continues to aid Episcopal Hospital in the purchase of needed equipment and by giving time and service to the patients of the hospital.

The 51st annual May Fete was held on May 23, 1984 on the hospital grounds. Members of the league and the hospital staff sponsored the health projects, entertainment and attractive booths. The entire community enjoyed all the festivities.

A successful Christmas Lobby Bazaar was held on December 6, 1984. Christmas gifts were purchased for Harrison House patients and presented at the annual Christmas Party. Candy canes were distributed in the Out-Patient Departments.

A new project sponsored by the league at Harrison House is the monthly visit of the Women's SPCA with live animals for the patients to see, touch and enjoy.

Red carnations were presented to the medical staff on Doctor's Day, March 29, 1985.

Thirty new Prayer Books were purchased for the Chapel.

Episcopal Hospital sweat shirts and jactets were sold as well as 1985 Entertainment Books.

The league operates a well stocked Gift Shop in the lobby and a library for the patients.

Members purchased a Blood Pressure Cuff for the Emergency Room and Bed Scales and a VCR for Harrison House. Nursing Scholarships will be awarded this Spring.

On June 11, 1984 a surprise luncheon was given to Mrs. Lewis Dick (Flax) for her 55 years of dedicated volunteer service. Her devotion to the hospital and league was acknowledged with a corsage and citation.

You are cordially invited to the 52nd annual May Fete on Wednesday, May 22, rain date, May 23.

Respectfully submitted,
Phyllis C. Lightcap

ELIZABETH PRICE MARTIN LEAGUE - #3

Riverview Branch

Dear Friends of EPML #3 May, 1985

We give our heartfelt thanks to all of you who were so generous in your response to our Christmas letter. We are looking forward to another good year.

The Christmas Party was held on December 28. The Girls Friendly Society of Emmanuel sang carols, and helped to serve food. Santa was there to distribute a small gift to each person. We also purchased knitted hats which were distributed with the gifts on Christmas Day

On February 12, 1985 we celebrated our Annual Valentines Day Tea Party as usual with silver tea service, candles, etc. Refreshments were simple but they loved it.

During this very cold weather many of the homeless are being sheltered at Riverview. Most of them have no personal items such as toothpaste and brushes, shaving cream, deodorant, etc. We made up 50 packages containing those items. Mrs. Alice Smiarowski, Coordinator of Volunteer Services wishes to extend her personal thanks and gratitude for your support in helping these destitute persons.

Our Annual Communion and Breakfast will be held on Tuesday, May 7, 1985 at 9 o'clock in the Chapel. We wish you would come and join us. Breakfast will be served at 10 o'clock in the dining room.

The Annual Picnic date is June 25, 1985. (Rain date is June 27). Volunteers are needed to help with the games and to serve food. The league will provide some extra treats.

Again our thanks and those of the residents who are grateful and appreciative for your continued generosity and support.

Sincerely,

Nancy Snyder
President

ELIZABETH PRICE MARTIN LEAGUE FOR SERVICE #4

Fair Acres Geriatric Center - Lima, PA

Mrs. Barbara H. Winner May, 1985

The EPM League at Fair Acres numbers about twenty volunteers of whom not more than fifteen and usually twelve are present each Tuesday. We are most fortunate in having the ECW of various parishes support us. A few of them send us a check each year. This is much appreciated because we support the Institution in its many activities and in its beautification projects. It was, indeed, the EPM League which initiated and sustained for many years a program of occupational therapy. This program has been picked up by the Institution and has become a department employing a large number of therapists. At present we pick up the areas of the program not covered for individual residents. We participate as a League in the annual Flea Market held on the grounds in September. We create each year a Christmas Bazaar for the residents, staff and friends in Building 8 and present a sale of good used clothing at very low prices for the residents in the patio of Building 7 each May. We earn most of our funds which we use to provide special gifts to the Institutions in the ways mentioned above.

Some years ago the EPM League created a memorial garden featuring exotic shrubs, a statue of St. Francis, a fountain and constant summer bloom. The maintenance of the garden is done by the League members. Previous to this, we maintained one of the larger patio gardens. We still fund the maintenance of this garden. All of this provided an inspiration for the Fair Acres beautification program which has enhanced the entire facility. They are helped with this by several garden clubs and civic groups. The Tyler Arboretum is happy to give them help with advice and plantings.

Our most vital service is evidenced in worship services and visiting clergy from six churches are involved in at least three worship services on Tuesdays. That is, clergy from one and sometimes two churches come to us a specific Tuesday of the month. Clergy who come to Fair Acres regularly are the Rev. Edward Battin from St. John's, Concord; the Rev. Michael Campbell from Christ Church, Media; the Rev. Mark Scheneman from St. Peter's, Broomall; the Rev. Stephen Jacobson from St. David's, Radnor; the Rev. Donald Pierce, Elam Methodist Church; the Rev. Benjamin Ball, St. Luke's Methodist Church, Chester. We are fortunate in having at least three other clergymen we are able to call on for emergencies. There remain frequent last minute cancellations of clergy which are well understandable and in these instances we conduct morning prayer services ourselves. We try to provide a Eucharist for as many residents as possible in several buildings on each first Tuesday of a month. This involves two priests from two parishes and an incredible amount of energy from too few volunteers. We are fortunate in two of our members who play the organs and pianos.

Visiting is an important and ongoing part of our ministry. Each of us share in this and we deliberately try to spread it as wide as possible. However, the resident population continues to grow and we are so few.

Once each month, usually the last Tuesday, the EPM League sponsors a birthday party in Building #7 to honor those in that building who have celebrated birthdays that month. Nine different parishes help us give these parties. We do not give them in June, July or August. A birthday party at Fair Acres is not complex. We arrange to obtain dixie cups of ice cream from the kitchen. The host parish brings six or seven dozen home-made cup cakes, paper plates and napkins seasonally festive plus some kind of amateur entertainment. This is always up to the discretion of the host and some of them have been rollicking good fun. Usually not more than five or six members of the parish are involved. Sometimes the Rector joins them, sometimes not.

This year we are celebrating our twenty-fifth year of service at Fair Acres. The Institution gave the League a beautiful luncheon at which a Commendation from President Reagan and several other accolades for volunteer service were presented. We, as a League, try to anticipate needs of the Institution and to fulfill those needs whenever possible. We have provided pianos, P.A. systems, microphones, sweatshirts for the Special Olympics, hymnals, books, Chapel supplies and many other gifts individually and collectively too numerous to mention.

We are looking forward to our annual meeting which will be held June 7, 1985 at St. John's Episcopal Church, Concord. It gives us all great joy to work together in this service. Our great need at this time is more loving hands to share in this joy.

Faithfully,

Barbara Winner

THE ALTAR GUILD
of the

Miss Grace Burns May, 1985

Our Guild was formed in 1912 to care for the Bishop's chapel. The work soon extended to the care of the chapels of the City Mission and to provide for the needs of the chaplains. Our chief concern today is to help the institutional Chaplains of the Episcopal Community Services. We supply their altar bread and altar furnishings and vestments, when requested.

We have classes where the embroidery is taught and where the fair linens, corporals, etc. are made. We fill requests from missions and churches in the Diocese and in other parts of this country and the world. These articles are not for sale.

There are four kinds of membership in the Guild: Corporate, Active, Associate and Life. Regular membership dues plus contributions and the offering from Quiet Day make up the main source of our income. Any amount over the regular dues is considered a donation.

Each year we have a Quiet Day on the first Wednesday of October. Recently they have been held at St. Anna's Home, 2016 Race Street. Our regular meetings are the third Monday of October, November, January, February, March and April. They are held in the Centennial Room at the Church of the Holy Trinity, Rittenhouse Square.

The Diocesan Altar Guild welcomes the interest and support of new members. You need not be a member of an altar guild to attend.

Grace Burns, President
Diocesan Altar Guild

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING

Carolyn Solomon

May, 1985

The order of the Daughters of the King is a Lay Order for Episcopal women whose members take the vows of Prayer and Service when they are admitted. Each Daughter prays daily for the spread of Christ's Kingdom, for her parish and for those who are in need, such as the parish sick list and others on the chapter prayer list. We are available to assist the rector and also serve through other church organizations as well as through contact and other Christian oriented organizations. We are celebrating our 100th birthday this year.

In the Pennsylvania Diocese we have five Chapters and a Junior Chapter. Our newest chapter was installed last September and is a deanery chapter. It includes women of several churches of the Valley Forge Deanery. We also have members-at-large who do not attend or live close enough to a parish with an active chapter.

Members are not permitted to raise money in the name of the Order. Free-will offerings from members nationally are made to several Funds. The Self-Denial Fund, received during Epiphany, pays the salaries and living expenses of our two missionaries in Brazil, Elizabeth Daniels and Pat Powers. They have installed a chapter at Rio De Janeiro with a junior chapter.

The Master's Fund Offering, which is received during Pentecost, goes to a scholarship fund to help women prepare for some form of Church related ministry. The Endowment Fund is raised through memorial contributions to the Book of Remembrance and contributions for thanksgiving and honor to the Book of Honor. This Fund is used for extending the Order

We have an Annual Diocesan Assembly in May and a Provincial Assembly in June. St. James Kingsessing will host the Provincial Assembly June 14th and 15th.

Our motto is:
For His Sake: I am but one, but I am one
I cannot do everything; but I can do something.
What I can do, I ought to do.
What I ought to do, by the grace of God,
I will do.
Lord, what will you have me do?

Respectfully submitted,

Carolyn Solomon,
Diocesan President

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

Mrs. Kenneth Wolfe, Sr.

May, 1985

The Church Periodical Club (CPC) is an affiliated agency of the Executive Council of The Episcopal Church. It is the only organization in the Episcopal Church dedicated solely to providing printed material free to those who need and request it and cannot obtain it otherwise.

For nearly a century the CPC has been active in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. The success of CPC's mission depends upon Parish participation. We have been blesssed over the years by faithful Parish representatives. Miss Isabel Chase, a long-time representative, has in her possession the minutes her Mother wrote for a meeting of the Ladies Guild of Saint Paul's Episcopal Church in West Whiteland, Chester County, dated August 1913 reporting a donation to CPC.

Parishes still support this important ministry. This faithful support enables us to send Bibles, Theological Works, Journals, Periodicals, Remedial Reading Material and many books to help meet the need of the printed word at Seminaries, Chaplains and Retired Clergy.

HOW IT ALL STARTED

In 1888, Mrs. Mortimer Fargo, wife of the co-founder of The Wells Fargo Stage Coach Line that crossed the country in early days, began packing and sending her Church periodicals to missionaries in such remote places as Wisconsin. Deeply touched by their letters of appreciation, she organized six of her friends in the Church of the Holy Communion in New York City into a Club to send their own and such periodicals as they could collect. Thus a world-wide ministry began and was named - The Church Periodical Club. The name was abbreviated by workers and recipients to "CPC" and soon became so well known, especially in faraway missions that all subsequent efforts to change it to more accurately reflect CPC's organization and scope failed. Mrs. Fargo, who saw CPC as an opportunity for a simple expression of the missionary spirit, stressed personal giving and sending with a prayer and a blessing. CPC quickly grew. In 1920 the Church recognized CPC's great missionary work. In 1922 the National Books Fund Committee was set up to handle large requests. Today CPC functions on all levels of Church and Society. In Parishes, more than four thousand volunteers seek out needs, raise funds, and carry out Church Periodical Club projects.

The CPC has been active in the Diocese of Pennsylvania since 1893 and we are still one of the most active in the nation.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Miles Wolfe,
Director of CPC - Diocese of Pennsylvania

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ARCHIVIST

SUMMARY

The work of the Archives of the Diocese during this Convention year has proven to be interesting and productive. Work focused on the records at Church House. The records were surveyed and non-current and inactive records were transferred to the archival storage area at the Presbyterian Historical Society or were discarded. Several important items and collections were acquired for permanent accession to the Archives. The Archives was opened to academic researchers, and information and assistance was provided to the bishops, the chancellor, and other diocesan officials as well as to the parishes, the clergy and the lay people. Reference service was also given to the general public for such purposes as data for securing Social Security benefits and genealogical research, and in answer to inquiries about the Church and its history.

CHURCH HOUSE RECORDS

A survey of records and files at Church House revealed over 325 cubic feet of records stored in cabinets, on shelves and in closets. A large portion of these were active records used in current operations, but there were also records of such venerable old closed parishes as St. Andrew's Church, Philadelphia, St. Simeon's Church, and Zion Church. There were files concerning the controversy at St. Luke's, Eddystone, older material relating to active parishes, and files concerning the ordination of women. Forty-three boxes of records were transferred to the archival storage area. Most of these need further processing. Material without permanent value was discarded.

ACCESSIONS TO THE ARCHIVES

In addition to the records transferred from the Church House, several valuable items and collections were added to the Archives.

1. Books, historical pamphlets, manuscripts and memorabilia of Dr. William Manross, a leading historian of the Episcopal Church and Professor of Church History (retired) of the Philadelphia Divinity School.

2. Correspondence, photographs and papers of the Rev. Francis C. Hartshorne (died 1950), Rector of St. Peter's Church, Phoenixville, and active in diocesan affairs.

3. Correspondence, papers and photographs of the Rev. C.M. Butler, chaplain to Congress and to the Union Army, Rector of the Church of the Saviour, Philadelphia (1867-1869), and Professor of Ecclesiastical History at the Philadelphia Divinity School (1865-1885).

4. Books and photographs from Bishop Ogilby.

5. Copies of parish histories for the Parish History Collection, from several parishes.

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICE

Requests for assistance from various Diocesan officials and committees included requests by Bishops Ogilby and Mosley for historical information and drafts of letters, and from William White, Esq., Chancellor of the Diocese, for help in research into the history of certain Canons of the Diocese.

The loan of the portrait of Bishop Onderdonk to the Diocese of Delaware for its bicentennial exhibit was coordinated by the Archivist for Bishop Ogilby.

REFERENCE SERVICE FOR ACADEMIC RESEARCH

TheArchives was utilized by, or provided support to, several academic research projects. Some of these are as follows:

1. Dr. William Quay used the Archives in his research into the life and work of the Rev. Henry L. Phillips, Archdeacon for Colored Work in the Diocese, and community leader.

2. The Rt. Rev. John M. Drumm, retired bishop of the Diocese of Southern Ohio, who is writing a history of that diocese used information and copies of documents from the Archives concerning the Rev. Thomas Jaggar, Rector of Holy Trinity, Rittenhouse Square, from 1870-1875, and first bishop of the Diocese of Southern Ohio.

3. Dr. Deborah Gough, under a grant from the Barra Foundation to write a history of Old Christ Church, Philadelphia, has commenced research in the Diocesan Archives.

REFERENCE SERVICE TO THE PUBLIC

Over 150 letters and telephone calls with requests for a variety of information were answered during the year. Many concerned genealogy and family history, and often required considerable research time. Others related to specific historical questions or information about the Episcopal Church.

OUTREACH TO THE PARISHES

Historical information was supplied to St. Mark's Church, Honeybrook, and St. Paul's Church, Elkins Park, for their anniversary celebrations.

The archivist visited St. Gabriel's Church, Roosevelt Boulevard, and spent time with the new vicar, the Rev. James Davis, reviewing the surviving records of the parish.

A Parish Archives and History Workshop sponsored by the Archives Committee, and held at the Church of the Saviour on November 2, 1985, provided theological foundation and practical procedures for establishing parish archives and writing parish histories.

The archivist initiated and edited a monthly Diocesan Archives Newsletter to present information about the Archives and promote interest in the history of the Diocese. He also prepared an exhibit for the Diocesan Convention.

APPENDIX #10:

EPISCOPAL COMMUNITY SERVICES

Report to the 202nd Convention

October 18, 1985

The mission of Episcopal Community Services is to help individuals, families, and neighborhood groups to be self-reliant and improve the quality of their lives and their communities. This responsibility extends throughout the five-county area with priority given to addressing the unmet needs of the poorest and most destitute in our communities.

ECS and parishes have a mutually dependent, and a mutually supportive, relationship in reaching out with Christian compassion not only to parishioners but also to others in the community. The professional capabilities and experience of ECS and specialized programs run by ECS can be of great assistance to parish-based programs. At the same time, because ECS does not itself have the resources to serve all who need help, the energy and enthusiasm of parish members can accomplish much of what ECS would like to be able to do.

In the last year Episcopal Community Services has made several major steps toward the realization of this tall order that has been our challenge since the establishment of the Episcopal City Mission in 1870 by Bishop Stevens. I would like to share some of these with you.

1. New Corporation Established to Run Springfield and All Saints' - In July, following a year of intensive negotiations, we announced the signing of a letter of intent to form an affiliation with Chestnut Hill Hospital to establish a new corporation. The new corporation will assume full ownership and operational responsibility for All Saints' Rehabilitation Hospital and Springfield Retirement Residence, which share an 11-acre campus in Wyndmoor.

   All Saints' Rehabilitation Hospital, with 52 rehabilitation beds and 31 skilled nursing beds, has provided both inpatient and outpatient programs since 1958. Prior to that time, ECS had operated All Saints' for 80 years as a long-term care institution for tuberculosis patients. Springfield Retirement Residence is a 134-unit continuing care community opened by ECS in 1975.

The new corporation is the result of ECS's decision a year ago to reaffirm its 115-year focus on social services and chaplaincy in community-based settings and link Springfield and All Saints' with a larger health care institution.

We are pleased to be affiliating Springfield and All Saints' with a responsible community institution with a long record of providing quality care. At the same time the consolidation of ECS's programmatic focus will make the agency better able to carry out its mission.

2. Medicare-certified Home Health Services Added to ECS Home Care - In recognition of the growing need for multiple services among homebound elderly poor, we have been licensed to provide in-home health care services, such as nursing, physicial and occupational therapy, medical social work and home health aides from our North Broad office. This now supplements our work by case managers, homemakers, and volunteers and enables our clients' needs to be addressed by one comprehensive agency.

   Additional support for our shut-in elderly clients is anticipated from new ECS-parish cooperative projects in the initial stages of discussion with some rectors and laity. Such work is expected to include occasional Saturday work crews to paint and repair clients homes and parish volunteers to provide other personal services to a particular ECS client.

3. Parish-ECS Cooperative Projects are Increasing - Beginning with a reappraisal of ECS Chaplaincy Services two years ago, more emphasis is being given to cooperative service projects jointly sponsored by ECS with individual parishes. Bi-monthly, 3-4 clergy have been invited to share with our staff the problems and opportunities in their parish communities. I am pleased to see our staff providing direct services through our Episcopal parishes. I am also encouraged by our joint advocacy work on behalf of the disadvantaged in our neighborhoods. The 1985 ECS Annual Report which will appear in the November issue of The Episcopalian will outline some of these projects.

I hope you share my enthusiasm for these steps and what they mean for our renewed emphasis on the Christian outreach that ECS is here to provide.

Respectfully submitted,

(The Rev.) Gilbert S. Avery, III

APPENDIX #12: THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

SPREADING THE KINGDOM

St. Luke October 18

ALMIGHTY GOD, WHO INSPIRED YOUR SERVANT LUKE THE PHYSICIAN TO SET FORTH IN THE GOSPEL THE LOVE AND HEALING POWER OF YOUR SON: GRACIOUSLY CONTINUE IN YOUR CHURCH THIS LOVE AND POWER TO HEAR, TO THE PRAISE AND GLORY OF YOUR NAME; THROUGH JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD, WHO LIVES AND REIGNS WITH YOU, IN THE UNITY OF THE HOLY SPIRIT, ONE GOD, NOW AND FOR EVER. AMEN.

+ + + + +

Luke 4:14-21

THEN JESUS, ARMED WITH THE POWER OF THE SPIRIT, RETURNED TO GALILEE; AND REPORTS ABOUT HIM SPREAD THROUGH THE WHOLE COUNTRY-SIDE. HE TAUGHT IN THEIR SYNAGOGUES AND ALL MEN SANG HIS PRAISES.

SO HE CAME TO NAZARETH, WHERE HE HAD BEEN BROUGHT UP, AND WENT TO SYNAGOGUE ON THE SABBATH DAY AS HE REGULARLY DID. HE STOOD UP AND READ THE LESSON AND WAS HANDED THE SCROLL OF THE PROPHET ISAIAH. HE OPENED THE SCROLL AND FOUND THE PASSAGE WHICH SAYS,

> 'THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD IS UPON ME BECAUSE HE HAS ANOINTED ME; HE HAS SENT ME TO ANNOUNCE GOOD NEWS TO THE POOR, TO PROCLAIM RELEASE FOR PRISONERS AND RECOVERY OF SIGHT FOR THE BLIND; TO LET THE BROKEN VICTIMS GO FREE, TO PROCLAIM THE YEAR OF THE LORD'S FAVOUR.'

HE ROLLED UP THE SCROLL, GAVE IT BACK TO THE ATTENDANT, AND SAT DOWN; AND ALL EYES IN THE SYNAGOGUE WERE FIXED ON HIM.

HE BEGAN TO SPEAK; 'TODAY', HE SAID, 'IN YOUR VERY HEARING THIS TEXT HAS COME TRUE.'

St. Luke's Day -- a good day for a Church Convention! St. Luke, the 'beloved physician', was a companion of St. Paul on his missionary journeys and major contributor to the New Testament. Since the second century the Church has accepted the tradition that St. Luke was the author of the Third Gospel and its sequel, the Book of Acts. He appears to have been a native of Antioch and had a special and close connection with the Church in Philippi. Jew or Gentile? We are not sure. But of all the four Evangelists, authors of the gospel narratives, he was the most skillful literary artist and the most sensitive and compassionate lover of the weak, the friendless, and the needy. He is worthy of a day on our calendar.

Our Gospel reading for St. Luke's Day is the familiar declaration in the synagogue of Nazareth, often called the Nazareth Manifesto. This famous passage is frequently quoted in contemporary writing as the basis for an interpretation of the ministry of Jesus as the launching of a 'peoples' movement' for liberation, a movement which inevitably led on to a confrontation with the 'establishment'. These words of Jesus, which he takes from the prophet Isaiah and makes his own, are sometimes seen as the manifesto for a popular movement of revolutionary change in the established economic and political order.

This is a too simplistic transference of contemporary ideas to the text. We must comprehend the whole gospel story -- not just this isolated text -- and read this manifesto as the proclamation of a true king in the messianic tradition. It is the function of a just ruler, a true king, to bring deliverance to the oppressed. This is the Davidic strand in the Old Testament teaching about the kingdom of God: Yahweh is the true king who intervenes to establish the cause of the oppressed against their oppressors. The source of disturbance, the confrontation, the challenge, is this kingly intervention from above, not a popular, peoples' movement from below. There is no doubt that the gospel accounts carry forward the Old Testament faith that 'God has a bias in favor of the poor'. But this tilt, this leaning, towards the oppressed and needy is because of a just God who empties himself in compassionate love, called Jesus Christ -- He insists that the true manna, the true bread with which the Father feeds the hungry, is himself. Now we know that the kingdom of God is no longer an abstract idea, no longer merely a phrase that God reigns, no longer a distant "pie in the sky". The kingdom has a name and a face; it is the name and face of Jesus -- it is the Person of Jesus. To preach Jesus -- his justice, righteousness, peace, and freedom which is God's love -- is to preach the kingdom of God as it truly is.

Later on in his gospel narrative, St. Luke speaks of John the Baptist when he was in prison for pricking the vanity of Herod. John, the forerunner, had heard about the ministry of Jesus and sent his messengers to find out what he was up to. The message came back, "Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, the poor have good news preached to them." It is the same message as the Nazareth declaration: proclaiming the good news of faith, and hope, and a new life for the poor, bringing freedom to the oppressed, sight to the blind, and service to the needy.

Jesus concluded this synagogue reading with Isaiah's reference to "The acceptable year of the Lord". This phrase means the Jubilee year described in Leviticus 25. Here, at the beginning of his ministry, Jesus proclaims that it is now coming to pass, and he identifies it as central to his message. We need not be concerned in the latter decades of the 20th century with every detail of the Jubilee year of Leviticus; but the important word is the nature, the ingredient, the essence, of Jubilee -- which is social change: setting our priorities and values in accord with God's kingdom, with the mission of Jesus Christ. Jesus did not preach a 'spiritual', individualistic, private message of salvation. Jesus' message which he proclaimed and incarnated, said and did, was direct, comprehensive, wholistic: good news for the poor and oppressed; liberation for the bound from any and all bondage -- political, economic, social; help and healing for all who are sick, handicapped, and helpless. The gospel, the good news which Jesus preached and activated, addresses and impacts all of life, all of the human condition, all of our human activities and involvements. Jesus did not only talk about loving our neighbors, but also our enemies. We, redeemed sinners, enmeshed in the corporateness of a fallen world, are called to be Christ followers at all times and in all places.

And now to us, here in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. First, a word of appreciation to those who responded so faithfully to my petition of a year ago, calling for a study of our current mission as we prepared for the election of a bishop coadjutor. Under the title, Perspective on Mission and Ministry, George Krall and his associates produced a concise, comprehensive, and useful summary and description of this mission. I want to lift up several themes from that study, pertaining to region, diocese, and attitudes and expectations.

"Sociologist Digby Baltzell has written that Philadelphia's Quaker egalitarian ethic has stifled leadership and induced a sense of inferiority. Perhaps that was once true; we suspect it no longer obtains.

Many other influences are at work. A historic and pervasive one has been strong neighborhood identification in both city and suburbs -- parochialism. That and the livability of many sections may dampen collective concern. Yet, we believe, the region has shown ample capacity on occasion to respond to challenges and will continue to in the future."

We in the Delaware Valley often rejoice in and extol the values rooted in our strong neighborhood tradition, which contributes to making our communities more humane, just, and livable for all generations. Surely, this cohesive neighborhood concern continues to contribute to the viability and the high quality of corporate Christian life of many of our congregations all over the diocese. My regular visits to so many of you are joyful and graceful occasions for me, and I thank God for you. But we all must recognize that this regionalism directly impacts our local Christian communities, our congregations, for good and ill, positively and negatively. I say this from a broad personal experience in the Anglican Communion and the Episcopal Church, as well as having the opportunity to visit over 100 congregations in this diocese each year for the past 14 years. This pervasive temptation to be parochial and congregational in our church life is dangerous. Such a restrictive, exclusive, self-centered orientation limits our effectiveness and truncates our response as Christians to the gospel mandate of working, praying, and giving for the spread of the kingdom of God. And 'spread of the kingdom' can be read 'mission'. Wherever Anglican/Episcopal Christians are gathered and indentified -- local congregations, deanery, diocese, nation, world, ecumenical councils -- at any or all of these levels, we are called to mission, to spread the kingdom of God.

One hundred and fifty years ago, the General Convention, the great missionary convention of 1835, meeting right here in Philadelphia, elected Jackson Kemper the first missionary bishop of the Episcopal Church, and declared the whole church -- all the baptized members -- to be the missionary society of the Church, committed to spreading the kingdom near and far. Our diocese, Pennsylvania, is our local missionary society, and our diocesan missionary enterprises and ministries are the expressions of our corporate and collective response to the gospel. We all should be encouraged that our diocese, our missionary society, now assembled in representative convocation, will address some painful, troubling, and terrible parts of our world, for which we bear some responsibility. This responsible concern is symbolized by a few of the resolutions which will be presented tomorrow: peace in Nicaragua; apartheid in South Africa; nuclear weapons, missles, and delivery systems. Furthermore, our projected diocesan program and its supporting budget, so carefully, thoughtfully, and thoroughly prepared by many people, is essentially 'mission', spreading the kingdom. We must be grateful to and proud of our committed colleagues who have prepared this for us. We will and should hear in this Convention many voices lamenting the inadequate and insufficient resources offered and made available to sustain, prosper, or initiate needed diocesan mission and ministry. I add my voice to that lament.

I was surprised to read in the study, already cited, that the survey taken by the Committee showed that the Diocese does not expect the Bishop to spend much time on stewardship. Stewardship -- the serving as caretaker and custodian of the gifts and graces of God, and the teaching of and witnessing to faithful stewardship, both individual and corporate, is gospel, word and sacrament. I will not be mute. I am endeavoring to be a tither: that is my intentional goal, and that is what is expected of every Christian. Furthermore, as an Anglican/ Episcopal Christian there is no question as to where our primary and basic missionary contributions and loyalties belong. The channel is simple and direct: congregation, diocese, national church. When we have met these primary responsibilities and obligations, we then can talk about "second-mile giving", and additional missionary projects.

In this diocese, we may rightly claim many wonderful resources -- people, places, and institutions; history, culture, and traditions. We all have been enriched and encouraged by this noble legacy of our diocese. Personally, I rejoice in your friendship, good will, and love; and I know that you will show this same affection for and support of Allen Bartlett, our bishop coadjutor elect. But I dare not boast of what a great diocese Pennsylvania is until we translate more visibly and corporately the concluding expectation from the report of the study committee, which states:

"The Diocese of Pennsylvania seeks to know Jesus Christ and to make Him known, to be transformed by the power of the Holy Spirit so that in all aspects of our common life we exemplify His life and ministry. We seek also to equip ourselves for service so that all God's people may experience an abundant life."

APPENDIX #13:

The Social Concerns Committee of the Diocese exists to study and to respond (in whatever fashion is appropriate) to a host of social issues that are properly a concern of the Church and of Christians. For the most part, we make no effort to deal with matters already the province of specific existing committees (i.e. racism, refugees, alcohol use...). There are enough problems to go around as it is.

One of the distressing realities of our committee's work is that the same issues come before us time and again: unemployment, the homeless, the hungry, medical care of the poor and unemployed. Our focus is specific: writing legislators to support extension of unemployment benefits or to provide more adequate reimbursement to hospitals that treat the poor, urging changes in zoning to permit establishment of shelters, supporting low income energy assistance programs and the like. While the focus is specific and may change from year to year, it is distressing - and a commentary on our times - that the same problems come before us time and again. And we expect it to continue this way. Our society simply does not have the energy, will or commitment to deal with the problems of the poor realistically and constructively.

Sometimes a new issue comes before us. We picked up three this year. We monitor tax reform, with concern that the charitable deduction (for those who use short form 1040) may be lost. At the Bishop's request we studied the concept and some specific proposals on the "owner owned and operated" supermarket in urban areas - a hopeful prospect for employment - and recommended diocesan support for this. At the request of Episcopal Community Services, we are now studying the perplexing issue of investments in companies doing business in South Africa. We hope our findings will be useful in the diocese at large.

How can we make our work more effective? We are trying to do this by moving in two different directions. First, we are trying to pool our energies with corresponding groups in other denominations through the Interfaith Coalition on Public Policy. Hopefully, this will provide a stronger voice from the religious community while cutting down on duplication of work. Secondly, we are seeking to discover effective ways to make our concerns the concerns of parishes and vestries throughout the diocese. One of our meetings was given over to use of the Great Decisions program of the World Affairs Council. This program, which provides a thorough summary of an issue, fairly representing all points of view, provides participants with key questions for discussion and decision. This is a likely model for us to use in bringing some of our concerns before you.

We have an important responsibility. Sometimes it's frustrating. Often it's not popular. Always it's complex. Do support us with your prayers and attentiveness.

APPENDIX #14:

STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE REPORT
FALL 1985

The Diocesan Stewardship Committee was started in 1976 by a small group of commited men and women to train parishes in a biblically-base program of Stewardship. Since that time the Committee has grown and reached out to almost 50% of the parishes in the Diocese. Formed initially to present the Pennsylvania Plan of Stewardship, the group has expanded its vision so that almost every parish can take advantage of the the expertise developed by the members of the Committee.

The Stewardship Committee is composed of lay and clergy . The chairman is Bill Powell All Saints',Wynnewood. The Director is the Rev. John Martin. Others on the committee include The Rev. Maurice Coombs, Jan Duncan, Art Criddle, The Rev. Robin Martin, Jack McCullough, Ginger Nagle, The Rev, Claudia Patterson, and John Rettew.

During the past 12 months the Stewardship Committee has worked with 2 dozen parishes. Consultations using the Pennsylvania Plan have been offered to parishes either for year one or year two. Several parishes have been trained in the use of the Year-Round program. A number of parishes have used our members for informal education programs at coffee hours,vestry meetings and parish meetings.

During the upcoming 12 months the Committee expects to work with 24 parishes. Our goals are to use The Pennsylvania Plan in each parish over a two year period, and then assist those parishes in the use of a year-round program where the emphasis is on Stewardship education rather than a once-a-year fall campaign which is so time-consuming, and which masks the true meaning of stewardship.

Our hope has been to develop a role which will make us useful to every parish in the Dioicese. In additioin to our work directly with parishes, we are designing workshops which will be helpful and practical. The first one will be April 11 & 12, 1986. It will include stewardship in preaching, personal witness,planning / development, and Christian education.

We believe that the resources of this committee can help every parish. Stewardship is a major issue today in the Church. It is a basis for renewal for every Episcopalian. Translating that into parish life means revival of the roles of the parishes of The Diocese of Pennsylvania.Because this is happening in other Dioceses across the country,it is a major factor which will lead to focus and commitment and action by the church-at-large.

APPENDIX #16: DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

Bishop's Task Force on Housing
Report To
202nd Diocesan Convention

October 18-19, 1985

The Bishop's Task Force on Housing has four purposes:

1. to be a catalyst to assist developing projects to provide housing, rather than being directly engaged in operations;

2. to focus on those with the least resources in need of housing including the elderly poor;

3. to explore a growing role in advocacy for housing for low income persons;

4. to work collaboratively with other religious and community groups to achieve these purposes.

During the past year the Housing Task Force has seen considerable progress with three housing developments;

Diamond Park - Construction is in progress on a $2.6 million, 45 unit HUD Section 202 housing development for handicapped persons located on two sites in North Philadelphia. The Diocese, ECS, Church of the Advocate and the Advocate Community Development Corporation are the four co-sponsors of this project.

St. Peter's Place - Construction is complete on this 50 unit, HUD Section 202, housing for the Elderly project located next to St. Peter's Church, Phoenixville. The Rev. Jim Evans, Rector of St. Peter's Church, has joined the Task Force as a member this year. A ribbon cutting ceremony will be held next Sunday, October 27, 1985 to mark the official opening of this project: The Diocese of Pennsylvania is also a co-sponsor of this project.

St. Peter's Rectory, Germantown - this small 8 unit project is being developed by the Shared Housing Resource Center. Construction is underway now and should be ready for occupancy shortly after the first of the year.

Two new projects have also received support of the Bishop's Task Force on Housing.

1. St. George's Rectory, West Philadelphia submitted a HUD Section 202 housing application with the co-sponsorship of the Diocese and received favorable funding this spring. The Rev. Russell Bechtel and the Shared Housing Resource Center will be working to carry forward this project this year. We wish to encourage parishes and missions to consider the use of unused rectories or other unused buildings for such purposes.

2. Germantown Interfaith Housing - Eight local parish churches in Germantown, including Christ Church & St. Michaels (The Rev. John Martin) submitted a HUD Section 202 application for the rehabilitation of this empty commercial building, The Barker Building, into 84 units of housing for low income elderly persons. The Task Force and the Bishop provided advocacy help to this project. The project was funded by HUD this fall.

The Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese allocated financial support from the Bulmer-Parker Fund restricted for assistance to Elderly Persons to five housing developments, upon recommendation of the Housing Task Force as follows:

1. $7,500 to St. Peter's Place, Phoenixville to purchase furnishings for the common public areas.

2. $7,500 to the Philadelphia Urban Finance Corporation for loans to assist elderly housing rehabilitation.

3. $10,000 to the Partnership for Urban Housing Development to hire a Project Manager to oversee construction of this 45 unit handicapped and elderly housing development.

4. $12,500 toward development of a permanent rent subsidy fund for this 8 unit Shared Housing project to assist low income elderly persons.

5. $15,000 to the Shared Housing Resource Center to be used as a capital escrow in their Revolving Loan Fund for 36 units, in six shared group residences being developed in Philadelphia and Montgomery Counties.

The Task Force received regular reports from two interfaith housing groups with whom we have been involved for several years.

Philadelphia Urban Finance Corporation - an interfaith group which continues to provide interim financing for housing rehabilitation in Philadelphia.

Interdenominational Action Association of Chester - a local interfaith group which provides loan funds in cooperation with the Chester Redevelopment Authority to rehabilitate vacant housing which is subsequently sold to low income tenants.

Finally, the Task Force on Housing heard a comprehensive report from the Housing Association of Delaware Valley on Tenant Management of Public Housing. Models of tenant management in Boston, St. Lous, Louisville, Kentucky and Washington, D. C. were reviewed. We are now exploring ways the Bishop's Task Force on Housing and the Diocese of Pennsylvania might be helpful to other interested groups in launching such a project in Philadelphia.

Members of this volunteer committee have been loyal and steady in their participation and I believe the contributions made by the Task Force to provide improved housing opportunities to low income persons within the Diocese has been significant.

APPENDIX #17: DIOCESAN COMMITTE ON HISPANIC MINISTRY

1984 was a year of changes and new beginnings, reorganization and redirection for the Diocesan Hispanic Committee as well as for the ministry itself.The Rev.Dr. Franklin D. Turner,the Bishop's Assistant for Congregations replaced Mrs. Janice Duncan as Bishop staff liaison. And The Rev. Floyd Naters Gamarra was elected Chairperson to replace The Rev. Stephen Price who rotated off the committee. Both Mrs. Duncan and Fr. Price are to be commended for their faithfulness and competence, but above all for their commitment to Hispanic Ministry.

Fr. Turner has helped the committe to become a better focused organization in terms of its purpose, role and objective as well as in terms of structure and function. As a result the committee has produced a brochure which was distributed at Diocesan Convention('84) and a statement of purpose and responsibilities. New members have been recruited to serve and they are doing so with much enthusiasm.

At present we continue to support and nurture two major sites where pastoral ministries are taking place:Christ Church and St. Ambrose at 6th & Venango in North Philadelphia where The Rev. David S. Dod continues as Vicar and St. Paul's Chester where The Rev.Dr. Elias Penaloza has been ministering to a Hispanic Congregation As the Resident Missionary. However, this past January 25,1985 Fr. Penaloza and 25 laypersons petitioned the Bishop to establish them as a Hispanic mission under the name of Mision San Pablo. The committee is now engaged in aiding Holy Trinity,West Chester as they research the viability of Hispanic ministry in that parish.

The committee continues to be supportive of the outreach programs to Hispanic people in Kennet Square at La Comunidad Hispana and at Casa Nueva VIda in West Chester.

Respectfully submitted,
The Rev.F.Naters Gamarra, Chairperson.

APPENDIX #18:

THE BISHOP'S COMMITTEE ON AGING

The Bishop's Committee on Aging, a member of the National Episcopal Society for Ministry on Aging (ESMA), is part of the national network of province coordinators and diocesan designees who implement ESMA's goals and objectives--developing ministries with and on behalf of older persons.

The Bishop's Committee has held monthly meetings, sharing information with many local groups working with or for older persons. As a result of these contacts, a "Resource Fair" was held on March 2, 1985, at the Church of the Saviour. There was an exhibit of resources, plus an exchange of ideas and input from parishes. Panel members represented the Episcopal Community Services, RSVP (Retired Senior Volunteer Program), CLEO (Compact for Lifelong Educational Opportunities), PROJECT HEAD (Help Elderly Adults Direct), SSS (Support Services Seminar), Caretakers of Chester County, and the Dolphins. Dr. Peter Mills, Director of CLEO, remarked, "I am excited to be here. I can't tell you how many meetings I've spoken to--Rotary, Kiwanis, educational meetings. I've never heard of a meeting or been at a meeting in which there was so much love. Those kinds of meetings don't generally generate the kind of love that I've seen here this morning."

Two newsletters have been sent through the Diocesan mailing; one announcing the volunteer services of Anneta Kraus of Geriatric Planning Services as a consultant to clergy, and an update on local and national happenings re the elderly.

Mrs. Sally Pritchard represented the Committee at the annual Province III meeting of ESMA at the College of Preachers in Washington in May.

Committee members are: Nancy S. Ritter, Chairman, Richard F. Smith, Elizabeth Forrester, Alice Barron, Dorothy McCabe, Sally Pritchard, Marjorie Farmer, Sr. Mary Michael, and The Rev. James Mole.

APPENDIX #21:

202ND CONVENTION

THE CHURCH FOUNDATION REPORT

The Church Foundation is the designated trustee of the Diocese to hold property, real and personal, in trust for the Diocese, its parishes and missions, and various church-related institutions.

The Foundation's Investment Committee manages a broadly diversified common trust fund, known as the Consolidated Fund, in which more than 300 church funds are invested. They represent almost every kind of church fund imaginable, many of them permanent endowments. Because of that, the Foundation's Investment Committee has adopted a long-term investment policy. The Fund is invested in the approximate ratio of one-third bonds and two-thirds stocks with such modifications from time to time as may be necessary or appropriate because of changes in the security markets.

The results for the past year were good. On September 5, 1985, the unit value of the Fund was $33.19, up 17% from $28.27 on September 5, 1984. In the same period, the income per unit rose about 6% from $1.95 to $2.06. The fund value also increased from $30.2 million to $37.1 million, $1.7 million of which represented net new additions to the Fund. The remainder resulted from realized gains on the sale of securities reinvested in the Fund and an increase in the unrealized appreciation of securities. We are pleased with the results and anticipate further growth in the future.

Finally, a few comments about several estate matters, two of them concluded and the others still in progress.

(1) The old St. Martin's Church, Marcus Hook property, consisting of the Church building and the adjacent burial ground was conveyed to the Marcus Hook Community Development Corporation earlier this year. The agreement called for a $5,000 Diocesan contribution, the assignment of a small trust fund and certain accumulated rentals in return for the Borough's covenant to restore the building, improve the burial ground and maintain the property in perpetuity. St. Martin's was one of the churches represented in the first Diocesan Convention in 1784.

(2) When St. Matthew's Church, Francisville, closed in 1976, the Foundation became involved in the collection of the Church assets. Included among them was a $70,000 mortgage received in 1975 when the Church sold its property to a Baptist congregation. The mortgage went in default almost from the beginning and it became obvious that the Baptist congregation would never be able to keep up with the required payments. The property was sold to the St. Joseph's Preparatory School for $65,000 cash after months of negotiation. The agreement of sale provided that the Baptist congregation vacate the premises in return for $20,000 and that the remainder would be paid to the Foundation. Eventually, the Foundation "salvaged" $45,000 from what appeared to be a lost cause.

(3) St. Peter's Church in the Great Valley, Paoli, is involved in litigation with the Warner Company stemming from the company's application to the State Department of Environmental Resources for permission to expand and deepen its quarry on three sides of the Church. The Department has granted a permit to expand the quarry in a 47-acre tract on the west side of the Church. A decision to expand in a 113-acre tract on the east side of the Church is expected momentarily. The Foundation, representing the Diocese, is assisting St. Peter's Church and the Great Valley Coalition to prevent irreparable damage to the area and in particular, to the Church which dates from 1700.

(4) The Church of the Holy Nativity, Richboro/Wrightstown, has commenced the planning process for the construction of a new church building in a rapidly expanding area in Bucks County. With the approval of the Bishop and Standing Committee, the Foundation took title to an undeveloped tract of land in June and it is presently assisting in the development of plans for the church building for submission to the Bishop and Standing Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

Geoffrey Stengel

APPENDIX #23:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE

At the first stated meeting after the 201st Annual Convention of the Diocese, the Standing Committee received Certificates of Election from the Secretary of the Convention confirming the re-election of Mrs. Cecily Grannum and the election of Rev. John F. Hardwick for a five-year term on the Committee. Also at this October 23, 1984 meeting, the Rev. Herbert E Rowe was elected President of the Committee and Duffield Ashmead, III, was re-elected Secretary.

In addition to its usual business concerning ministry issues and approval of various Bishops around the country, the Committee's principal concerns in the past year have been: (1) responsibility for the election of a Bishop Coadjutor, (2) the ongoing problems concerning the location of Church House arising from the various defaults by the developer of Hotel Rittenhouse, and (3) ongoing responsibility, with the Bishop, for allocating the income from the Sayers and certain other endowment funds.

Election of a Bishop Coadjutor

The Standing Committee allocated a total of $65,000 from the Sayers Funds to pay for all aspects of the election of a new Coadjutor, pursuant to Bishop Ogilby's call at the 201st Convention. These funds have been used to pay for the self-study that was completed on April 1, 1985, and for the search process that culminated in the election of Dean Bartlett on September 28. These funds will also be used to pay the costs of re-location and consecration of our new Bishop.

The 201st Convention also adopted a resolution on October 20, 1984, that provided:

> That the Standing Committee see that provision is made for the salary and expenses for the Bishop Coadjutor.

Pursuant to this direction, and in conformity with its duties under Diocesan Canon 7.2.1, the Standing Committee on May 28, 1985, allocated sufficient money from the Sayers Funds to pay for the Bishop Coadjutor, his secretary and related expenses in calendar year 1986.

Looking forward, the Standing Committee will be working closely with Dean Bartlett and his family to assure a smooth relocation to our Diocese.

Church House Developments

The problems of Church House in general, and of the defaults of Hotel Rittenhouse Associates in particular, were subjects of consideration at every Standing Committee meeting in the past year. That year has been eventful.

When the Bank of America sought to foreclose on its mortgage from Hotel Rittenhouse Associates, litigation in the federal court ensued between those parties. This dispute was settled between these two firms in late March, 1985, and shortly thereafter Bank of America took title to the partially-completed skyscraper on the west side of Rittenhouse Square. It soon became apparent that the Bank of America was interested in disposing of its newly-acquired property, and we were advised in September, 1985, that the Bank was selling the property to The Greenwood Group here in Philadelphia.

Initially, direct contacts with the principals of Greenwood have confirmed that Greenwood intends to live up to the obligation to provide the Diocese with approximately 10,000 square feet of space for 35 years at $3.00 per square foot. We have been advised that Greenwood hopes to resume construction of the building on or about January 1, 1986, at an estimated additional expenditure of approximately $75 million.

In the meantime, the Diocese remains in the IVB Building at over $20.00 per square foot rental, albeit with a six-month option to vacate the premises. The Standing Committee expects to continue to work intensely on this issue, mindful at all times of the desires of the people of the Diocese, and of the Standing Committee's duty to the Diocese for responsible stewardship of an extremely valuable asset.

Sayers Funds

As noted in the Report to the 201st Convention, in the late summer of 1984 the remainder of the Sayers family estates' money was awarded to the Diocese. Canonical responsibility for these Funds resides exclusively in the Bishop and Standing Committee. In order responsibly to administer these funds, the Standing Committee, with the approval of the Bishop, on January 28, 1985, promulgated "Mission Endowment Committee Guidelines," which were distributed to all the clergy of the Diocese. Consistent with the Wills of Maud, Wilhelmina and Edward Sayers, the Standing Committee, with the Bishop's concurrence, established three broad categories of mission to be supported by these Funds. As detailed in that January 28, 1985 publication, these categories are: (1) "The Fabric of Mission," (2) "New and Innovative Ministries," and (3) "The Poor and the Homeless."

Consistent with these Guidelines, in 1984 and 1985 a total of $545,592 was awarded in support of seventeen projects. These projects range from $50,000 to help rebuild the Church of the Advocate to $14,925 to support Trinity Memorial Church's "Wintershelter" program for the homeless.

Looking forward to 1986, the Bishop and Standing Committee have awarded, among other things, $25,000 for the support of a new mission in the Brandywine Deanery, as well as $80,000, as previously noted, for the salary, support and related expenses of the Bishop Coadjutor.

* * * * *

Committee meetings are usually held in the office of the Diocese on the fourth Tuesday of every month except July and August. If anyone wishes to appear on a particular matter, advance notice should be given to the Secretary so that the subject may be put on the Committee's agenda.

Respectfully submitted,

Duffield Ashmead, III
Secretary

APPENDIX #24:

CLERGY DEPLOYMENT - 1984-1985

Prepared by George H. Soule
Administrative Assistant for Clergy Deployment
July 1, 1985

An unusually large number of openings for parish clergy and a relatively slow rate of placement has kept diocesan deployment quite active for the past twelve months and, at this writing, we have the largest number of such openings reported to Convention in more than a decade--22 senior parish positions and three assistantships. This appears to be a cyclical phenomenon, but it also seems to indicate that what has been an equilibrium between openings and clergy in this diocese is now tilting toward a slight shortage of clergy to fill the kinds of parish openings that occur.

The summer of 1985 found us with a desperately inadequate roster of clergy to answer calls for vacation supply.

Yet ordained women are still experiencing substantial difficulty in moving from internships and first curacies into rector/vicar positions.

The slow pace of placement has benefited, and perhaps been fostered, by a small increase in the number of non-parochial and retired clergy with special capabilities for interim work; and the Rev. Harry L. Mayfield, the first priest of this diocese to focus on interim ministry as a specialty, has taken the interim consultant training program of The Alban Institute and the Mid-Atlantic Training Center.

On the national level, the Church Deployment Office has published two new booklets on specific aspects of the calling process--one on "Prayer in the Calling Process," and one on compensation. Two more are in work--one on mutual evaluation of performance in ministry, and one on the clergy side of interviewing. In addition, your deployment officer is a member of a small national task force undertaking a forecasting process for the church's clergy needs, which has been requested by seminary deans.

DIOCESAN COALITION FOR MISSION AND MINISTRY

This past year the Coalition cosponsored an all day Metropolitan Conference on Evangelization and Ministry and a three-part evangelism workshop led by members of the Renewal, Evangelism and Church Growth Committee. A stewardship workshop was also held.

For the first time in some years, the Coalition developed a new review process for allocation of diocesan funds. The guidelines for Mission and Ministry which had been presented and accepted earlier in the year were used in preparing the grant proposals for 1985. Members of the Coalition found the process helpful and the proposals were accepted unanimously. It was agreed that the same method would be followed for 1986. One addition was recommended - a new budget form which would give the committee more comprehensive financial information. The form is being used for the 1986 allocations and will be revised as necessary.

Bishop Ogilby was the celebrant at the Annual Assemly in December and Mr. John Coleman, Executive Director of the Sts. Peter and Paul Center in Richmond was the preacher. A supper and entertainment by Coalition members followed.

Two programs that were helpful to Coalition congregations were: preparing annual parochial reports, led by William Paddock and Peter Wilmerding, and a review of the basic coverages of the Church Insurance Company by Mr. Charles Cascio.

Energy saving continues to receive the Coalition's attention. Most of the congregations have completed their energy audits and recommendations are being carried out in order to realize the financial savings. It was also decided that each congregation will appoint an Insurance Risk manager.

Member congregations have the opportunity to share their ministries and among these are: St. Barnabas, Haddington opened a shelter for the homeless; Christ and St. Ambrose received funds to continue its bilingual school; St. Mary's, Warwick is applying for parish status; Mision San Pablo became an orgranized mission of the Diocese and joined the Coalition; St. Mary's, Bainbridge opened a thrift shop and continues to run its soup kitchen, as does the Church of the Advocate.

The new format for meetings beginning with Prayer and Bible Study, followed by Discussions of Mission and Ministry and the business meeting, has proved to be a successful model.

The Rev. Franklin D. Turner, Bishop's Staff for Congregations serves as Chair and The Rev. Glenn Matis, elected by the members is vice-chair.

All Coalition meetings, presently held at the Church of the Saviour on the second Saturday of the month (except July and August) from 9:00 - noon, are open and all are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Report to the 202nd Convention

Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions

The Clergy Salaries and Pensions Commission has functioned in the Diocese for seventeen years. It continues to fulfill a unique role in the Church both in its jurisdiction and its right to address Convention directly. The Commission continues to fulfill its mandate given to it both by canon and informally by Council and Convention in four major areas:

*Since 1978 it has assisted (primarily financially) in the relocation of clergy who have severed relationships with a parish or institution of the Diocese.

*The Commission continues to establish annual guidelines for appropriate ranges of remuneration for parish and other clergy. Such guidelines are also useful to institutions within the Diocese which employ clergy.

*The Commission offers policy advice for various constituencies in the area of employee benefits and clergy perquisites. This task is constantly reviewed by the Commission to ensure that it remains consistent with the general market place of not-for-profit institutions.

*Review of pension premiums for life insurance and pension assessments, particularly those of clergy in transition and of parishes facing financial emergency.

The Commission has pursued these tasks during the year under review and reports the following:

Clergy Pensions

The Commission continues to be diligent in obtaining regular and current data concerning clergy pensions and has alerted parishes where there was an inexplicable delinquency. In some cases in the year under review the Commission has paid up the pension arrearages to ensure that the dependent(s) were not jeopardized. The Commission again asks all parishes to note that the payment of salary, pension assessments and insurances are a "first call" upon the parish budget and should not be withheld in order to pay other bills.

Because of the intensive work of this last year, the Commission can report that all pensions are up-to-date.

Clergy Relocation Assistance

During the year under review several clergy were assisted financially during relocation periods. Each case is handled on its merits and the Commission is guided by a sub-committee chaired by Ms. Marie Lennan. Procedures for assessing needs and opportunities set in place during 1982-83 appear to be working well. Because of this prudent stewardship of resources made available by the parishes, the Commission does not seek an increase in the assessment for 1986. This aspect of the Commission's work is a witness to a caring ministry for which the whole Diocese should feel justifiably proud.

Salary Administration

The Commission continues to monitor salary trends in the not-for-profit sector of the economy. The gradings established in 1982-83 seem to provide a satisfactory guideline for most parishes. Disputed gradings of the Commission have been dealt with on a case-by-case basis. The Commission will present a Resolution to Convention for the 1986 salary ranges (which will include a cost of living adjustment estimated at this time--May 1985--to be in the 4% to 5% range) and reaffirms its policy that the mid-point of those ranges should be the remuneration received by "a thoroughly competent incumbent of significant tenure." The Commission is always available to assist clergy or parishes where there is difficulty in defininining that qualification.

In a recent survey of the Diocese, 10% responded that the clergy were not paid adequately, 29% that they were somewhat adequately paid, 40% felt that clergy are quite adequately paid, and 20% that our clergy are very adequately paid.

Of the 97 dioceses of the Church, the Diocese of Pennsylvania ranks tenth in median clergy compensation and 17th when such compensation is adjusted for area cost of living. The adjusted median compensation in this Diocese is $27,892, including salary, utilities and housing. The highest adjusted compensation (Central Gulf Coast) is $32,303 and the lowest (Eastern Oregon) is $20,000.

Subjective Factors in Determining Salaries

The Bishop appointed a sub-committee of the Commission (under the chair of Dr. Sadie Mitchell) to respond to the request of the Convention that it study other factors involved in the computation of salary. The sub-committee has presented an interim report and expects to have a complete report in time for presentation to the 1985 Convention.

Administrative Processes

Mr. George Soule, the Bishop's staff member for Clergy Deployment, and Mr. Peter Wilmerding, the Diocesan Controller, continue to assist the Commission in the administration of its affairs. The computer program devised by the Rev. Louis Temme and the Rev. Edgar Adams is proving a useful tool in the process of monitoring the statistical data from Parochial Reports to ensure early warning of possible difficulties. Dr. Sadie Mitchell and the Rev. Louis Temme have produced a manual which is available to all new Commission members and to any other interested parties.

Another sub-committee (chaired by the Rev. Timothy Pickering) is working on the matter of housing for clergy upon their retirement from full-time ministry.

The Commission inquired from the Chancellor with regard to the legality under the canons, to assist the spouse of divorced clergy should such assistance be necessary. The Chancellor indicated that, under the present canon, such assistance was not possible.

Conclusion

After six years of service on the Commission, the last two as Vice-Chairman, I retire from the Commission at this Convention. I thank the Diocese for the opportunity of serving in this ministry and wish the Commission well in the future.

(The Rev.) Maurice A. Coombs, Vice-Chairman

EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

Committee on Peacemaking

Annual Report to Convention

I. Background

This committee was formed in the fall of 1984. It is the outgrowth of the Committee on Universal Nuclear Disarmament, which met for the last time on May 31, 1984, and recommended to the Diocesan Council that it be reconstituted with a broader role. In September, a small group of persons who had been active with the Committee on Nuclear Disarmament was appointed by Bishop Ogilby to form the Committee on Peacemaking and establish its scope and terms of reference.

The original appointees met in December 1984 and agreed to make use of the extensive mailing lists of some 600 interested persons developed by the Committee on Nuclear Disarmament. We have since trimmed our mailing list to include only active and interested persons. Meetings have been held monthly since then, with increasing numbers of active participants.

II. Principal Tasks and Strategies

In the course of the monthly meetings the following tasks have been developed as areas of principal concern:

- Central America
- Sanctuary Movement
- South Africa
- Arms Control
- Jobs for Peace
- Draft Counselling
- US/USSR Relations

The committee has considered various activities which came to its members' attention during the course of the past six months. From these activities, the following strategies are being developed:

- Coordinate with other Diocesan groups, such as the Committee on Social Concerns, the Episcopal Urban Caucus, etc.;
- Maintain contact with similar groups from other Dioceses, and with the Episcopal Peace Fellowship;
- Establish relations with church groups of other denominations, such as the Society of Friends, parishes involved in the sanctuary movement, etc.;
- Become active in demonstrations for peace, e.g. Washington Rally, April 20;

II. Principal Tasks and Strategies (continued)

- Establish the Mary Brimley Memorial Draft Counselling Project;
- Provide financial support for the youth work project in Honduras;
- Organize a pilgramage to the Diocese of Nicaragua;
- Provide a channel of communication for participants in the Diocesan Peace Network and for parishes;
- Examine in detail all aspects of the political debates relating to peace and encourage committee members and others to communicate with lawmakers the results of their study, when appropriate.

III. Goals for the Year Ahead

Since much of the past year has been devoted to brainstorming, plans for the coming year envision establishing specific task groups responsible for the areas of concern already identified, and charging these groups with the responsibility of devising the detailed strategies to accomplish their tasks. Where the peacemaking role impinges upon the work of other groups, e.g. the Committee on Social Concerns, or the Urban Caucus, a coordinating function is to be offered. A major conference or workshop is under consideration as a means of deepening the understanding and awareness of the current issues facing the community, the nation and the international scene. It is hoped that the efforts of the Committee will make clear to the whole Diocese the importance of peace as a cornerstone of the teaching of our Christian faith.

APPENDIX #28:

The Diocesan Commitee for Refugee Resettlement under the Presiding Bisops Fund for World Relief, thanks to an enabling grant, continues to work with our Refugee Resettlement Coordinator in developing sponsors for refugees, to support sponsers and refugees during the resettlement process and to coordinate the resources available for refugees from federal, state and local agencies.

Prior to the 1984 Diocesan Convention we had resettled seven Polish people since then we have resettled another Polish young man with an individual family sponsor, backed up by support from All Saints Church, Norristown. He is now working full time, and has just gotten his own apartment.

An Ethiopian refugee, who was reunited with his family here, became ill and died seven weeks after his arrival. Holy Apostles and The Mediator cosponsored the family and probided many services during this crisis.

St. George's Church, Ardmore, has an ongoing sponsorship with a Vietnamese family who have been here for several years but have needed special assistance because of a medical crises.

Two families, one Vietnamese and one Hungarian, who were referred to us, will be reunited with their families through Catholic Social Services and the Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society. This type of cooperation among voluntary agencies makes it possible to avoid duplication of services.

We monitored the progress fo a 17-year-old, pregnant Vietnamese woman who was sent here from California by her family to spend her pregnancy with her brother.

She was sponsored by the Presiding Bishop's Fund in her resettlement into this country. As their agent in Philadelphia, we were responsible for seeing that she received necessary medical and supportive services.

In February, a young Afghan man arrived. Trinity Church, Swarthmore is co-sponsoring him along with the Swarthmore Refugee Resource House, a Quakersponsored residence for newly arrived refugees.

We are serving other prospective immigrants to this country, an individual and a family from Ethiopia and one person from Uganda.

It has been a productive year both in the number of refugees served and with our pleasant contacts and happy associations with the Parishes and the many agencies with which we've worked so sucessfully.

APPENDIX #29:

REPORT TO DIOCESAN CONVENTION 1985
COMMISSION ON MINISTRY IN HIGHER EDUCATION

The Commission on Ministry in Higher Education of the Diocese of Pennsylvania consists of clergy and lay men and women appointed by the Bishop. The Commission is charged to > expedite, stimulate, advocate, and oversee the Episcopal Church's ministry to and on the college and university campuses, endeavoring to foster this ministry in ecumenical and interfaith terms whenever possible.

Its responsibilities include assisting and supporting the chaplains with their ministries and advising the Bishop on their appointment, and actively exploring ways in which campus ministry can be prospered in the diocese.

In 1984-85 the Commission carried out its charge in three major ways.

--- Campus chaplaincies at Temple University, the University of Pennsylvania, and Cheyney University.

--- Special projects, including pilot projects in Parish-Based Campus Ministry, and exploration of the possibility of a new chaplaincy ministry at the University of Pennsylvania Medical School.

--- Ongoing relationships with the national Church and with ecumenical organizations, notably the Pennsylvania Commission for United Ministries in Higher Education.

Campus Chaplaincies

Temple University

Diocesan funds, channeled through United Ministries in Higher Education, support an active program at Temple, staffed by the Rev. David Gracie, an Episcopal priest, and the Rev. Joan Martin, a Presbyterian minister.

The core of the ministry at Temple is the Church and World Institute, the Center for Protestant Campus Ministry at Temple University. The center houses four to six students, who share Bible study and worship with other students and faculty members, and participate in community service projects such as working in a local soup kitchen or tutoring.

On campus, the presence and witness of the Institute is expressed in the ongoing work of the Center for Ethics and Social Policy, Black Campus Ministry, and involvement in issues of peace, social justice, and nuclear disarmament. In addition, Fr. Gracie has taught courses in the Urban Studies Department of the university.

A number of campus, church and community programs provide opportunities for relations between neighborhood churches and the campus. The Church and World

Institute provides listings of Sunday morning services, and facilitates contact between students and churches.

For 1986, the goals of the Church and World Institute include maintaining and strengthening the live-in student community that forms the nucleus of the campus ministry, and deepening the links between the African-American Studies Department and the community around the university. The campus ministry program can thus support and enable the overall ministry of the university in the city.

[Funding: 1985, $20,000; proposed 1986, $22,000.]

University of Pennsylvania

Diocesan funds support the ministry of St. Mary's Church, Hamilton Village, with students and faculty of the University of Pennsylvania. Funds are spent not on clergy salaries but on staff support and program directly for campus ministry.

At St. Mary's itself, ministry is focussed on "equipping persons who are in our community so that they are prepared to take their places in other parishes when they leave us." The parish offers a wide range of participation in liturgy, music, theological reflection and Bible study, and has an impressive record of adult receptions and confirmations and of participation by parish members in Diocesan activities.

At the Christian Association on the university campus, a variety of ministries are carried out in an ecumenical setting, working with Jews and Moslems as well as with other Christian groups. Programs extend into the performing arts; the Meals for Hospitality program, feeding 75-100 people a night three nights a week; work with Southeast Asian refugees; and sponsorship of conferences on critical subjects.

An active counselling program is carried out, providing guidance for students, faculty and area residents in areas of vocational choice, spiritual choice, social ethics, marriage preparation, personal relations and family problems.

In the next year, St. Mary's expects to play a crucial role in determining the proper direction for the Christian Association in the future, as the life of the university in its location in West Philadelphia becomes increasingly complex.

[Funding: 1985, $17,600; proposed 1986, $20,000.]

Cheyney University

Diocesan funds have supported a chaplaincy program at Cheyney University for several years. The program was suspended for a thorough review and evaluation in mid-1984. This review has turned out to be extremely timely in the light of the critical issues currently faced by the university itself as it considers accreditation problems, seeking a new president, and reasserting its role in providing quality education for its predominantly black student body.

Diocesan representatives are participating actively in the recruitment of a new chaplain. It is expected that this position will be filled by late summer in plenty of time for the fall semester. A report on the new chaplain and his or her vision for the campus should be available by the time of convention.

[Funding: 1985, $15,210 (six months); proposed 1986, $30,000 (includes contingency fund).]

Special Projects

Within the geographical bounds of the Diocese of Pennsylvania are a wide variety and number of institutions of higher education, urban and rural, live-in and commuter, ranging from community colleges to medical schools. Clearly such a range of needs for campus ministry cannot all be met through traditional paid chaplaincies. The Commission is currently involved in two special projects to explore alternatives for some of these ministries.

Parish-Based Campus Ministry

In the fall of 1984, with consultation from UMHE, the Commission undertook a pilot project in Parish-Based Campus Ministry. The project has had three elements.

First, area educational institutions and parishes were surveyed to determine their needs and interests in campus ministry. The results provided useful background information on the campuses in the area, and an indication of the potential interest of parishes in more active involvement in ministry on nearby campuses.

Second, a workshop was held October 30, 1984, at Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, for clergy who had expressed an interest in such ministry. Participants explored a context for parish-based ministry on today's campuses, examined some successful models for such ministry, and sketched possibilities for particular projects. The workshop was well-attended and lively.

Third and ongoing, the Commission is facilitating particular projects and relationships between parishes and campuses. Consultation from UMHE staff continues to be available.

[Funding: 1985, $6000; proposed 1986, $5000.]

University of Pennsylvania Medical School

This project developed from a proposal to the Commission by the Rev. Frank Harron, Rector of St. Peter's Church in the Great Valley, for a chaplaincy at the Medical School of the University of Pennsylvania. The purpose is twofold: a pastoral ministry to the students and faculty, and the provision of a theological perspective in the ethical deliberations underway at the school. Funding independent of the Diocese has been obtained for the project for 1985. The Commission's role is to provide liaison and advice, and to learn from the results of the project how similar ministries might be initiated.

[Funding: 1985, support from a private foundation; proposed 1986, $5000.]

Ongoing Activities

As part of its normal function, the Commission is kept informed of program and other resources available through the national church.

A major element of the Commission's work is its participation in the Pennsylvania Commission for United Ministries in Higher Education (UMHE), a statewide ecumenical group representing major Protestant denominations. The Diocese thus joins with four other dioceses and fifteen other Protestant groups to plan and support ministry in higher education throughout the state.

UMHE's goal is to "provide a comprehensive ministry in higher education, affirming the Gospel of Jesus Christ, witnessing to the Good News and sharing in the reconciling work of God among persons as they seek wholeness and purpose in life." Its programs include full-time ordained campus ministry, regional parish-campus programs, lay ministries, and student conferences. It also provides valuable information and resources through two annual meetings and staff consultation.

Two Commission members, Drs. Russell U. McLaughlin and Alison A. Anderson, currently serve on UMHE's Executive Committee.

APPENDIX #30:

THE REPORT OF THE ECUMENICAL AND INTERFAITH COMMISSION OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

. . . By The Rev. Wilfred F. Penny

We are approaching the end of the millenium with a focus on convergence in doctrine among the Christian Churches. The year 2000 is only fifteen years away. Various ecumenical leaders including Pope John Paul II have spoken about the second millenium of Christianity with urgency for the unity of Christ's Church.

In his report at The National Workshop on Christian Unity which met May 21-24 in San Antonio, Texas, the Episcopal Ecumenical Officer, The Rev. William Norgren, stated that by the time the next General Convention meets in 1988, a decade will have elapsed since the last major Episcopal Church consultation on ecumenism which met in Detroit in 1978 and produced a declaration of ecumenical purpose known as "The Nature of the Unity We Seek."

At this writing of my report in June, it is now proposed by the Standing Commission on Ecumenical Relations that "there be a three year national ecumenical emphasis (1985-1988), culminating in a second national consultation and in celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Chicago-Lambeth Quadrilateral (1886, 1888). Some of the goals for the three year national ecumenical emphasis would be:

(1) To involve the dioceses and their people in responding to ecumenical developments during the last decade.

(2) To focus on our Church's developing understanding of authority in the Church as "authority" has been rethought in the context of ecumenical dialogues.

(3) To seek the participation of ecumenical partners in the three year ecumenical emphasis.

Participation with ecumenical partners took place in our Diocese with your Ecumenical Officer meeting monthly for the past year with the Ecumenical Officers of the Roman Catholic, Lutheran, United Church of Christ and Presbyterian Churches at the office of The Rev. Edward Geiger of the Metropolitan Christian Council of Philadelphia.

The purpose of the meetings was the development of a Diocesan-wide Workshop on Grass Roots Ecumenism which took place on Saturday, March 16 at The Church of the Saviour, 36 & Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia.

Of the 200 present there were 43 Episcopalians, 51 Lutherans, 4 Methodists, 10 Presbyterians, 9 U.C.C.'s and 45 Roman Catholics. Brother Jeffrey Gros of The Faith and Order Commission as the keynote speaker addressed us on "Baptism, Eucharist and Ministry; Background, Current Status and Future Challenge."

Our moderators in a panel on "Where Do We Go From Here?" were Mrs. Leslie O'Heir of The Philadelphia Presbytery, Msgr. Francis X. DiLorenzo, Rector of St. Charles Borromeo Seminary, The Rev. John F. Leser of The Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania, The Rev. Dr. John Reumann of The Lutheran Theological Seminary, and The Rev. Dr. John C. Shetler, Conference Minister of The Southeast Conference of The United Church of Christ.

The Rev. Edward B. Gammons,Liturgical Officer of the Diocese, prepared for us at the Workshop an Ecumenical Liturgy of the Word, based on the Liturgy of Lima, 1982.

Our Diocesan Ecumenical Commission met for a full day's Retreat and Planning Session at St. Margaret's House on Saturday, May 4. The Rev. Frank Turner of the Bishop's Staff, led the conference.

The Diocesan Commission is composed of The Rev. John F. Leser, Mrs. Kathryn Darby, Mrs. John Forrester, Mrs. Virginia Bracken, Mrs. Victoria Clark, The Rev. Autumn Fletcher, The Rev. Vincent Bareckson, Mr. Ronald Garvin, The Rev. John Hardwick, Mr. Daniel Johnson, Mrs. Pat Kendall, The Rev. James Sox and Mr. Daniel Wood.

One of the results of the Retreat was a statement of purpose: "We recognize that all are one under God, and we struggle to realize this unity, appreciating the diversity of God's people through the actions of sharing, dialogue and prayer.

"The purpose of this Ecumenical Commission in the Diocese of Pennsylvania is to serve as a bridge between the Diocese and other religious bodies; to communicate Ecumenism within our own Diocese; and to set up structures to carry out this communication."

A number of parishes have communicated with us, the ecumenical concern on the local level. One such parish has been that of The Church of the Holy Nativity in Richboro. Its Vicar, The Rev. Glenn Matis, requested permission, which the Bishop granted, for an ecumenical Eucharist with the Family of God Lutheran Church slated for October 6, 1985. Fr. Matis writes: "This service will continue a tradition that was begun on January 18, 1981. These ecumenical services have been helpful to both churches in understanding the liturgy and tradition of each other."

The Valley Forge Deanery Clergy have instituted a LARC (Lutheran, Anglican, Roman Catholic) dialogue group which will become LARCO in the Fall when an Orthodox priest joins the group. Monthly meetings were held during the past year focusing on the Eucharist in the BEM document.

Let me illustrate how a local community can test an ecumenical agreement such as Baptism, Eucharist and Ministry (BEM). The process of building "consensus" no longer can be simply a matter for the theologians who gather in far away places. If the Church at the deepest level is to be reached, new strategies for involving the local congregations must be devised.

In Pottstown we have a very well established ecumenical community. Twenty congregations bound themselves together by a covenant this past year to study and pray about the meanings of the Lord's Supper "which we share in order to become more open to one another and to see more clearly what God would have us to do and be together in Pottstown."

To that end the congregations committed themselves to participate in a congregational study on the Lord's Supper. Throughout Lent four clusters of about 60 to a cluster, met weekly to study the BEM document and William Willimon's book Sunday Dinner.

On Saturday, April 27, representatives of the Churches met at The First Presbyterian Church for a workshop on Grass-Roots Ecumenism led by The Rev. Dr. John P. Reumann of The Lutheran Seminary.

Dr. Reumann's address was on "The Growing Consensus on the Lord's Supper and its Challenge to Faith."

The climax of the year's theme was reached with a Shared Eucharist on Ascension Day evening, May 16, held in The First Presbyterian Church. The Service has been shown eight times on cable television. Dr. John Shetler, retired Conference Minister of The United Church of Christ was the preacher.

The Rev. Edward Geiger, Executive Director of the Metropolitan Christian Council of Philadelphia, has been the coordinator of the Pottstown pilot program. Under his direction, interviews have been conducted by theclergy with leading citizens of the community focusing on three questions: (1) What's good about Pottstown? (2) What are the issues facing Pottstown? (3) What can the churches do? Such questions indicate that the quest for unity must be rooted in the search for unity of all humankind in peace and justice.

Ecumenism is not a department of church work, but a fundamental premise about how we are to do the work of the Church.

As your Diocesan Ecumenical Officer, I invite the Rectors and Vicars of our Diocese to appoint Parish Ecumenical Representatives and send their names with addresses. to me in order that we may do the crucial task of ecumenism together in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The Interfaith Coalition has generated dialogue between Christians and Jews. Fr. John Hardwick has been our representative to the Coalition.

This is a program supported by The National Conference of Christians and Jews.

The Coalition is interested in workshops on "Families in Transition: Jewish and Christian Perspectives", "Where are moral and ethical values to be transmitted?", "How Feminism Impacts on the Family to Religious Institutions?", "How do the Christian and Jewish Communities support the Changing Family?"

Respectfully submitted,

Wilfred F. Penny

FROM: Karen Schulz, Chair, 4A Committee

SUBJ: REPORT TO 202ND CONVENTION

The 4A Committee was formed by Bishop Ogilby in July 1980 in response to the 1979 General Convention Resolution which recommended that each diocese form such a committee. In the early years of our existence, we provided a written procedure for treatment of clergy and diocesan employees and their family members who suffer from the illness of alcoholism, provided a statement covering the use of alcoholic beverages at church functions and/or on church property, with particular emphasis on the provision of non-alcoholic choices, and provided an employee's policy statement which includes assurances of job security and insurance coverage for those completing a prescribed course of treatment for the disease of alcoholism.

Our present and future plans include providing speakers and educational programs which address recognition of the disease and intervention in the progression of this disorder before it runs its full destructive course. The response to the Intervention conference in January, 1985 with the Rev. Dr. Vernon Johnson, Episcopal priest and noted authority in the field, indicates tremendous interest in further programs to increase knowledge in the subject of alcoholism, intervention and prevention. Two such conferences are now being planned: one in November, 1985 and one in January, 1986.

The members of the 4A Committee are lay and clergy, professional and non-professional, recovered alcoholics and those who have strong personal interest in the area of addiction and chemical abuse. We stand ready to assist any parish, clergy, and individual in this diocese who desire educational programs, intervention assistance and knowledge of treatment programs. We also will provide whatever assistance is necessary in supporting national Alcohol Awareness Sunday, as developed by the National Episcopal Coalition on Alcohol, this year to be held on Sunday, November 24.

APPENDIX #32:

The major part of the Committee's attention went into the organization of the Diocesan Spiritual Growth Conference held March 22-23, 1985 with Dr. Peter Hawkins as the principal speaker. We are indebted to the Rector and people of St. Luke's, Germantown, for being the generous hosts for this event. The Committee was delighted to receive so many favorable responses to this conference.

The Diocesan Prayer Calendar continues to be published by the Committee at the request of the Bishop. Bryan Williams and Phillip Bennett have been this year's editors.

The Chairman of the Committee has continued to make use of the regular Diocesan mailings as a medium for communication of ideas and resource materials to the clergy, in the hope of raising greater interest in the whole area of spiritual growth, which is basic to any kind of evangelism and renewal.

From time to time members of the Committee have been asked to lead quiet days, workshops and small groups in days of reflection. George Soule represented the Committee by leading a workshop and conference on Family Prayer at the request of The Diocesan Committee on Family Life Ministry. He also led an adult forum at the Church of the Redeemer, Springfield on the subject of the 1979 Book of Common Prayer as a Resource for Personal Prayer, as well as leading a workshop on Meditation during the Diocesan Conference at St. Luke's.

Father Becker led a quiet day at St. Margaret's House in November as well as a School of Prayer there on December 15th. On December 22nd he conducted a quiet morning for members of St. Dunstan's, Blue Bell. And another quiet day on March 30th at Holy Apostles, Penn Wynne.

A retreat for candidates for ordination was held at St. Margaret's House in September which was the direct outcome of an earlier suggestion made by Sister Adele Marie when she was Chairman of the Spiritual Growth Committee and Barbara Rivers, currently a member.

We continue to wish for a greater use of the Committee and its resources by Diocesan clergy and laity in their parishes. The Committee always stands ready to assist in all areas of our spiritual journey together.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael R. Becker
Chairman
